Photos of Joy

A photo of a rainbow thru the window taken on Saturday during our Caregiver Day Out. We were all amazed at the beauty of the rainbow but we are even more amazed at the beauty of the caregivers and Guests that we see on daily basis.

Calendar information

December 24th and 25th- Joy's House is closed for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

December 31st and January 1st- Joy's House is closed for New Year's Eve & New Year's Day

Highlights of the week of December 3-7th

Monday: Christmas light suncatchers, Pictionary and listing at least 25 things were on the agenda

Tuesday: What's in the bag, jingle bell toss, and scrambled song titles were a portion of the day

Wednesday: Reindeer antler game, sing along to holiday music and facts about reindeer were a few of the highlights of the day

Thursday: We celebrated St. Nick today and talked about whether or not reindeers need shoes

Friday: All about candy canes and the upcoming holiday season today

A bit of humor

Q: Why did the little girl change her mind about buying her grandmother handkerchiefs for Christmas?

A: She didn't know what size her nose was

Joy's House Holiday Mixer

Where: UIndy Joy's House
When: Tuesday, 12/18 3-5p

Caregivers and house guests, please join us for a holiday celebration! We will enjoy some holiday treats, decorate cookies, create an ornament and maybe even sing a few Christmas carols!

Please register at the front desk.

Caregiver Tip The holidays are hectic and filled with things "to-do". It is okay during the hustle and bustle of the season to take a break and not do everything this year. Bake only one batch of cookies instead of the 16 that you normally do. There is enough on your plate as you care for your loved one.

Joy's House serves families by providing exceptional adult day and caregiver services.
