

joyful noise!

Caregiver Newsletter

November 16, 2018 "Grateful for small things, big things and everything in between."- Anonymous

Faces of Joy

Here are a few photos of happenings at the house this week. Miss Harriet showing off the "thankful leaf" craft she made at the start of the week. A nice group photo of a few people who were in attendance for the holiday dessert bar. Mr. Jerry showing that he is thankful for his daughter.

Highlights of the week of November 12-16th

Monday: Veterans and their service was the focus of today. Guests made cards for people currently serving our country

Tuesday: Tossing turkeys, what are you thankful for discussion are just two of the many activities today.

Wednesday: Animal slang, horseshoes, a turkey talk and the telling of really bad jokes happened at the house.

Thursday: I hear memories, turkey themed games and our holiday dessert bar were on the agenda for this icy day

Friday: Missing letters, famous couples, short stories and time with friends were all components of the day

A bit of humor

Q: Why can't you take a turkey to church?

A: They use such fowl language.

Upcoming dates and additional information

November 22nd and 23rd- Joy's House is closed for Thanksgiving

December 1st- Caregiver Day Out

*Check the desk for information on a raffle and to pick up your December attendance calendar

Joy's House serves families by providing exceptional adult day and caregiver services.

