Faces of Joy

Laughter, music, dancing and tapping into our creative sides are part of the day at Joy's House. The top two photos are of the Guests creating artwork with a group called The gLObl Culture. There was a creative energy in the house on that day. Guitar music, painting with household objects and interacting with new faces were a part of the art process. The bottom photo shows , Jen, Guest Relations Assistant, Miss Harriet, Miss Jennie showing off their dance moves. There never seems to be a day at the house without laughter, music or someone dancing around.

Highlights of the week of November 26-30th

Monday: Guests talked about Tina Turner and enjoyed listening to a few of her songs to help celebrate her birthday

Tuesday: Baking soda science, our time with The gLObl Culture and discussing how to give to other people were part of the day

Wednesday: What to know Wednesday, kitchen trivia, recipe discussion and laughter could be heard at the house

Thursday: We talked about the Rockefeller Christmas tree and traveling to New York

Friday: Bingo, letters to Santa and planning a holiday meal were all a part of the day

A bit of humor

Q: What is a snowman's favorite lunch?

A: An iceberg.
