

Ana Miranda, aka ANNA, is a rare example of a musician and producer completely comfortable shapeshifting between two parallel careers in electronic music, representing her two worlds – Techno and Ambient.

Born in Brazil and now based in Lisbon, ANNA moved to Barcelona in 2015 to immerse herself in the heart of the European dance music scene. This transition brought her hypnotic and melodic techno to the forefront, with releases on influential labels like Drumcode, Plus 8, Mute Records, Domino Records, and Afterlife. Her 2019 summer anthem, "Forever Ravers," a collaboration with Miss Kittin on Kompakt, ignited dancefloors worldwide and became a defining track during the pandemic. ANNA's productions, characterized by powerful, driving beats infused with ambient nuances, have consistently evolved, enriching her sound with each release.

With over 20 years in the industry, ANNA began her career in her father's nightclub in São Paulo. She now performs at top venues like DC10, Hi, and Printworks, and festivals such as Tomorrowland and Coachella. Her remixes for Jon Hopkins, Orbital, and Depeche Mode have solidified her status in the electronic music world.

ANNA's dedication to her craft led her to a neurofeedback center in 2017, transforming her creative process. This journey resulted in her debut ambient album "Intentions," featuring collaborations with Jon Hopkins, Laraaji, and East Forest, and an invitation to remix artists like Lana Del Rey and Rob Grant, Olafur Arnalds. Deeply committed to spirituality and meditation, ANNA integrates these influences into her music, creating a unique blend of Techno and Ambient sounds.

"I am everything. I am the stillness, the chaos, the light and the shadow," ANNA says, encapsulating her fusion of musical worlds. Her name, a palindrome, symbolizes the harmony of her dual musical paths: two worlds, one true artist.
