COMMERCIAL 💛💛
Use the font for your commercial projects. You remain the owner of your copy and only user.

LOGO & CORPORATE 💛💛💛
When does this applies? If the font is use as a logo in commercial project. Or in the case your client needs to use the font without you later on as a brand asset.
What does it mean? Your client needs to own a license himself, and you as well. This effectively doubles the price but you should split this with your client.
