

Matisa – Biography

“My music is born to inspire expression and encourage you to lose yourself in the moment.”

Born in Rome and now based in Milan, Isabella (aka Matisa) has carved out her own place in electronic music with a sound that is as playful as it is powerful. Her journey began in her teenage years, when her curiosity for digging records and experimenting with rhythm naturally evolved into DJing. What started as a passion for discovery quickly turned into a language of expression, where every set became a way to connect emotion, movement, and freedom.

Matisa’s music stands out for its bright, kinetic energy, weaving together vibrant grooves, shimmering melodies, and unexpected twists. She has an instinct for balance: her tracks and DJ sets carry an infectious lightness, yet always dive deep into raw emotion. It’s this tension between joy and introspection that makes her sound instantly recognizable. On the dancefloor, she creates an atmosphere that feels both playful and transcendent — a space where people can lose themselves in the moment while being swept up in her unique energy.

Since her debut release on Optimo Music in 2019, Matisa has developed into one of the most exciting new voices in the scene, with releases on respected labels including !K7, On Loop, Permanent Vacation, Running Back, Correspondant, Public Possession, and more. Her music has earned support from influential figures such as Dixon, Seth Troxler, Gerd Janson, Peggy Gou, and Moxie, among others.

Soon, she will also be releasing music on her own label — a new chapter that will give her the freedom to explore her sound even further and share her creative vision without compromise.

For Matisa, music is not just about sound — it’s about creating a vibe that inspires freedom, connection, and self-expression. That philosophy continues to drive her forward as she brings her colorful, genre-bending vision to dancefloors around the world.
