

DENIS SULTA

A favourite everywhere from Circoloco in Ibiza to Timewarp and Awakenings, and with his own Sulta Selects parties selling out enormous spaces around the globe, Denis Sulta has become one of the most acclaimed global producers. His performances behind the decks also have a proven ability to ignite the airwaves online, raking in nearly 5 million streams across three Boiler Room sets, with his most recent showing being one of their most streamed set of the year, garnering well over a million views in its very first month.

In 2019, following a series of singles and EPs on his own Sulta Selects label, which established a distinctive slinky and groove-filled house sound, Sulta released the “Aye Spoke Te Sumwuhn & They Listenhd” EP on seminal British label Ninja Tune. Now, after a production hiatus that seemed like an eternity, Denis Sulta re-emerges with the anthemic “World of Flies.” A testament to his musical evolution, and first original release since 2020, the independently released single ushers in a new chapter of Denis Sulta's musical growth, showcasing his prowess as a lyricist, vocalist, and songwriter.
