

Artist Biography: JAMIIE

JAMIIE is the kind of DJ who lights up a room and leaves a lasting mark on every dancefloor she touches. Known for her undeniable energy, her sets are a thrilling journey through housy grooves, stirring melodies, powerful vocals and rhythmic beats, all while staying deeply connected to her African roots. She seamlessly blends sounds that resonate with the body and soul, creating an atmosphere that is both dynamic and uplifting.

A magnetic presence behind the decks, JAMIIE commands attention wherever she goes. From B2B sets with Black Coffee to Tomorrowland stages and her residency at Berlin's iconic Watergate, she captivates crowds with her infectious passion and precision. Her ability to read a room and take it on a journey makes her sets an unforgettable experience.

The German-Nigerian DJ/producer has rapidly risen through the ranks, with her 2022 EP 'Unfold Voices' on Watergate Records cementing her reputation. The lead single, 'Unfold Me,' quickly racked up over 1M Spotify streams, marking JAMIIE as one to watch. Her production prowess extends to releases and remixes for prestigious labels like Anjunadeep, Rise Music, Monaberry, and My Other Side of the Moon, showcasing her depth and versatility as an artist.

Her journey is one of persistence, passion, and reinvention. After balancing corporate life and raising her daughter as a single mother, JAMIIE made the bold leap into music full-time, driven by the belief that it's never too late to change your narrative. "I realized I needed to express myself beyond the confines of a 9-5," she shares, and that creative liberation has shaped the vibrant artist she is today.

With performances at global hotspots like Hi Ibiza, DC10 Exit Festival, Ultra Music Festival, Woomoon, OFFSónar and South Africa's Bazique Festival, JAMIIE is only getting started. Prepare to be swept up in her rhythm as she continues to push boundaries and elevate dancefloors worldwide.
