NEW ALBUM AND EU/UK TOUR IN 2026

May 29, 2026 (Magnetism/Zebralution/Word & Sound)

OPTIMISM IS SET FOR RELEASE ON MAY 29
TOUR TICKETS ON SALE ON MARCH 19

What do we need now more than ever? Exactly, OPTIMISM. This is the place we long for, the solution we need, and also the name of DIGITALISM's new album, which will be released on May 29. Pre-orders will start on March 26.

German electronic pioneers DIGITALISM spread the urgent energy of OPTIMISM with their upcoming album and live performances all over Europe. Tour tickets are on sale on March 20, the artist pre-sale starts on March 17, Spotify Fans First pre-sale is on March 18.

A DIY spirit, in-the-moment energy and a low boredom threshold – all have been crucial to Digitalism's practice since they built their first track in a studio inside a WWII bunker in Hamburg, 20 years ago. Optimism is the logical consequence of the band's steady development.

Jence and Isi say: "In search of a better place, on an expedition, guided by our studio, we found it in a firework of colours, chords and melodies. Most of the album work was done over the winter. The greyer the environment, the more colourful music we started to create. OPTIMISM is meant to be a landscape you can get lost in."
