

3,000 New Zealand children lost their fathers during World War II...

20,000 New Zealand children lose their fathers every year because of destructive family law.

Write to your MP now and urge them to support shared parenting.