The MANHATTAN Everest Notebook Backpack is perfect for day trips across town or overnight excursions. An exterior cover flap protects two compartments with zippered closures that contain pen loops, an ID/business card holder and generous space to store important papers and files, notebook accessories and fresh clothing or a jacket. A large, unique padded computer compartment adjusts to accommodate a range of notebook computers with widescreens up to 17" and other equipment. The top-load design quickly and easily helps travelers unload and load a notebook computer at airport security inspections. Side compression and waist straps with a stitched foam back panel help adjust to suit varying loads for comfortable transport. Exterior mesh pockets and corded open storage help keep bulky or wet gear separate from sensitive items stored inside. Surprisingly lightweight for a backpack with this capacity, it can carry computing almost anywhere it needs to go.
