In-Ear Headphones for Workouts and Running

Need an energy boost? The Manhattan In-Ear Sport Headphones with Built-in Microphone power up your day (and your workout) with thumping bass and tight highs that will invigorate your inner batteries and keep you going strong. They have a lightweight, sweatproof design, as well as noise-isolating silicone tips that are comfortable and stay firm in your ear during even the most vigorous of activities. Plus, a slim in-line microphone makes it easy to take calls on the go.
