The image shows an outdoor laundry area. On the left is a dark door. In the center is a yellow double-basin sink mounted on a white stand. On the sink are a blue cloth, a white bar of soap, a clear plastic bottle, and a blue bottle of detergent. To the right of the sink, a white water pump is mounted on a shelf, with a hose connected to it. Below the pump is a white laundry basket filled with clothes. In the foreground, there are various cleaning supplies, including a green bucket and several bottles. In the background, a child in a yellow shirt and brown shorts stands on a tiled patio, looking towards a garden area with plants and a white wall.
