A House Divided: Civil War

Grades 5+

OVERVIEW

The Civil War tested and consumed the country for more than four years. Explore how this great conflict and subsequent Reconstruction period are depicted through the traditional mediums of painting and sculpture, as well as the then new medium of photography.

Through an active discussion of works depicting the Civil War and Reconstruction, students will be better able to:

- Understand the historical context of the Civil War and Reconstruction;
- Explain the effect of the Civil War and Reconstruction on soldiers, families, and enslaved people;
- Describe how the Civil War shaped our national identity;
- Use visual and contextual evidence to interpret artworks depicting the Civil War and Reconstruction.

HIGHLIGHTED STANDARDS

Historical Thinking

K-12.2: Draw upon the visual data presented in photographs, paintings, cartoons, and architectural drawings to clarify, illustrate, or elaborate upon information presented in the historical narrative, and appreciate and consider past historical perspectives
