Business Partner Script: Hey! I'm working on this big project and I wanted to call/text you first because I know you like money (OR I know you like to add value to business). Do you have a minute? (Wait for response).

Awesome, when do you have 12 minutes of uninterrupted time to take a look at a video that explains everything? (DO NOT send them the video until they are ready and uninterrupted).

Customer Script: Hey! Do you have a minute? (Wait for response). Can you do me a huge favor? (Wait for response). I'm so excited! I just started a new side gig. I'm looking forward to being able to (tell them why you started). I'm a few customers away from my first promotion!

I have a health product that I've fallen in love with (insert your testimonial). Will you do me a favor and try it for 30 days?! I've never had anyone NOT love it but if you don't, there's a 30 day money back guarantee.
