Their work keeps us safe. Their needs are our mission.

In addition to specialized protective gear and medical care, the Fund’s long-term goal is to build and maintain a kennel for former working K9s who cannot return to work or who, due to their significant hard-wiring, cannot be re-homed.

BACKGROUND
A working K9 is typically a breed bred for its dexterity, ability to focus, intelligence and athleticism.

THE NEED
These K9s require leading-edge gear and medical care when they become sick or injured.

HOW WE HELP
With your support, Spikes aspires to ensure every K9 receives exactly what they need every time.

Dogs saved me in the many ways a person can be saved. Powerful as they are, they can't advocate for themselves when they need help. That's why it's my mission to take care of them. And I can't do it without you.

OUR STORY

Spikes K9 Fund was founded by James Hatch, a retired Special Warfare Operator.

As a K9 handler on several deployments, James’ life was regularly spared by the work of K9s – one of the most memorable was Spike. And on James’ final deployment, the night he was critically wounded, a K9 spared James’ life while losing his own.

From that evening on, James oriented his life around the training, care and preservation of working dogs. In addition to working as the founder and president of the Fund, he works with local law enforcement and has adopted a former service dog in need of medical attention.
