Among the “must see” attractions in Thailand is a visit to Ayutthaya, the former capital of Thailand situated 56 miles north of Bangkok. This once magnificent capital of the Thais praised by foreign emissaries as the finest city they had ever seen. Surrounded by rivers and a canal, it flourished under thirty-three Siamese kings from 1350 until the Burmese destroyed it in 1767. Of Ayutthaya’s many notable ruins, Wat Na Phra Mane is one of the best preserved. DAY 5—TUESDAY—FEBRUARY 21
BANGKOK/CHIANG MAI

Return to the Bangkok airport for your flight to Chiang Mai. Upon arrival you will be transferred to your hotel where you will have some time to relax.

Chiang Mai is Thailand’s principal northern city and provincial capital of the largely mountainous province. Founded in 1296, it was the capital of Lanna Thai (Kingdom of One Million Rice Fields,) the first independent Thai kingdom within the fabled Golden Triangle. Chiang Mai flourished as a major religious, cultural, and trading center until 1556 when a Burmese invasion reduced it to a vassal state of Burma. The area once again became part of the Thai kingdom when the Burmese were expelled in 1785. Many lowland Thais regard Chiang Mai city and province as being something of a national Shangri-la, thanks to its beautiful women, distinctive festivals, historic temples dating from the 1300’s, arresting scenic beauty, temperate fruits such as apples, peaches and strawberries, and the crisp, invigorating cool climate (November through February).

Following lunch drive up the serpentine road to the magnificently situated Wat Doi Suthep. Perched atop a forested mountain with sweeping views of the city below, this most sacred of Chiang Mai’s temples (3,280 ft.) houses a wealth of Buddha images, murals, and Buddhist art. Climb the 306 stepped Naga staircases to reach the temple. Afterward, visit the City Pillar, whose animist origins predate the structure. A visit to the Cultural Center will give you a dynamic overview of this area’s long and colorful history and culture.

Continue with your visit to Wat Phra Singh, one of the highlights of Chiang Mai. The grounds and buildings are beautiful and so spiritual, the colors and the decorations are perfectly great. The Temple dates to the 14th century when Chiang Mai was the capital of the Lanna Kingdom, and it is one of the finest examples of classic Lanna style temple architecture in Northern Thailand. It is known as “The Monastery of the Lion Buddha” or “The temple of the Lion Buddha”.

In the evening, enjoy a superb Northern Thai dinner with folk dances and hill tribes’ presentations at Old Chiang Mai Cultural Center.
Located Wat Ket, just far enough from the city center to escape the hustle and bustle, Siripanna Villa Resort and Spa Chiang Mai is just a five-minute tuk-tuk ride away from all the exciting sights and sounds of the night market and other attractions. All 104 air-conditioned rooms feature balconies, 42-inch LCD TVs come with cable channels, and guests can stay connected with free Wi-Fi. Begin your exploration of the Angkor complex with the magnificent and monumental Angkor Thom, the last capital of the Khmers, surrounded by a quadrangle of defensive walls totaling over seven miles. Awaiting within, you will find the stunning Bayon temple – a 12th century masterpiece with over 200 bas-relief ‘faces’ peering out from its walls.
This afternoon visit Angkor Wat, the largest temple in the world conceived by Suryavarman II and generally believed to have been his funeral temple. The temple is the epitome of the high classical style of Khmer architecture. It has become a symbol of Cambodia, appearing on its national flag, and it is the country’s prime attraction for visitors. Angkor Wat combines two basic plans of Khmer temple architecture: the temple mountain and the later galleried temples. It is designed to represent Mount Meru, home of the gods in Hindu mythology. Within a moat and an outer wall 2.2 miles long are three rectangular galleries, each raised above the next. At the center of the temple stands a quincunx of towers. Unlike most Angkorian temples, Angkor Wat is orientated to the west; scholars are divided as to the significance of this. As well as for the grandeur and harmony of the architecture, the temple is admired for its extensive bas-reliefs and for the numerous devas adorning its walls. Since the decline of the Khmer Watch the exotic colors of the sun set over its galleries this evening.
Tonight, get set to discover Siem Reap on a most intriguing Vespa tour. The jazzy modern Vespas cruise through the busy streets of this ancient heritage town and introduce you to the many aspects of Khmer cuisine - from street markets to food stalls, from exotic fruits to fried bugs. This is a unique tour that embraces the local hustle and bustle of street markets and vendors and the accompanying sights, smells, and sounds. It is a fun and varied tour that embodies the fun-loving nature of the wonderful people of Cambodia!

DAY 14~THURSDAY~MARCH 2

SIEM REAP/ BANTEAY SREI & BANTEAY SAMRE TEMPLE

Following breakfast, you will visit Banteay Srei, the citadel of women. Built of red sandstone and dedicated to the Hindu god Shiva, this tiny, enchanting temple features male and female figures carved within its niches. This is the most Indian of all the temples in Angkor. The final temple of the day is Banteay Samre, built by Suryavarman II and Yasovarman II in the early 12th century. It is another Hindu temple but is built in the Angkor Wat Style. Banteay Samre is named for the Samré, an ancient people of Indochina, and uses the same materials as Banteay Srei.

On the way back to Siem Reap, stop at a village to observe how to do the rice field and how to collect sugar palm (depend on season, best period October to April) with a fresh coconut drink.

After lunch at a local restaurant, visit Theam's House: A Unique Atelier and Artist' Studio in Siem Reap set up in a very nice Khmer traditional house with its lush tropical garden. Behind each object, there is a new generation of young artists and artisans who are discovering an ancestral savoir-faire that they can be proud of.
Your last stop for the day, is at a development project teaching young adults, stone carving, wood carving, lacquer application, Les Artisans d' Angkor is a heartwarming reminder that progress in Cambodia can go hand in hand with traditional crafts.

Tonight, enjoy a farewell dinner at a local restaurant for a last opportunity to feast on traditional Khmer cuisine and reminisce with your fellow travelers about the wonderful sites you experienced on your trip.

These special terms are subject to change and can be withdrawn at any time.

CANCELLATION: Please be aware that most travel bookings are non-refundable and cancelled bookings will incur charges. These charges can be up to 100% of the cost of the booking, regardless of whether travel has commenced. Where we incur any liability for a cancellation fee or charge for any booking that you cancel, you agree to indemnify us for the amount of that fee or charge. Cancellations are only effective upon receipt of written notification. The following per-person fees are applicable; however, depending on the specific itinerary or other factors, we may require a non-refundable deposit:

- Up to 6 months prior to departure (August 21, 2022), we will happily refund the full deposit.
- August 22, 2022 to November 13, 2022, $300 per person administrative fee, plus $500 non-refundable deposits given to suppliers.

- December 4, 2022 to December 19, 2022, 50% refund is possible.
- 59 days or less prior to departure (December 20, 2022), no refund is possible.

These cancellation fees are also in addition to any fees imposed by airlines.

REFUNDS: While Classic Escapes uses its best endeavors to ensure that all anticipated accommodation is available as planned, there is no claim of any nature whatsoever against Classic Escapes for a refund, in whole or in part, if any accommodation or excursion is unavailable and a reasonable alternative is not found, or if the Traveler is unable to use any service provided in the itinerary.

CHANGES: Once your tour is reserved, changes to the itinerary are possible subject to the availability of air or land space at the time of your request. Should there be any change fees imposed by any airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to the availability of any space, these costs will be invoiced to you and you will be responsible for payment thereof.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: Should you wish to make additional travel plans, including specially arranged pre- or post-tour extensions different than those offered in conjunction with your tour, a service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORTS: All individuals departing from the United States of America must be in possession of a valid passport. Please check that your passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond your intended return date. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have valid travel documentation, including but not limited to passports and visas, which meet the requirements of immigration and other government authorities at every destination. You are responsible for confirming with the United States Department of State or the representative government agency of the country to which you are traveling to confirm the requirements for visas and/or other requirements for admission to your destination. Any fines, penalties, payments, or expenditures incurred as a result of such documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be your sole responsibility.

REAL ID: Beginning October 1, 2021, if you plan to use your state-issued ID or license to fly within the U.S., it is your responsibility to make sure it is REAL ID compliant. If you are not sure if your ID complies, please check with your local state Department of Motor Vehicles or visit www.tsa.gov/real-id.
TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: It is the responsibility of each Traveler to obtain and carry a valid passport, visa(s), and all other documents required by applicable government regulations. When traveling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry acceptable identification in order to board a flight. Acceptable identification can be found at http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same such data that is listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records. You acknowledge any failure to strictly comply with these requirements may result in denied boarding or an undue delay at an airport security checkpoint causing Traveler to miss flight(s), and subsequent scheduled travel bookings on cruises and tours.

Travel documents include, without limitation, airline tickets, hotel vouchers, tour vouchers, or any other document (whether in electronic form or otherwise) used to confirm an arrangement with a service provider. Travel documents may be subject to certain conditions and/or restrictions such as, but not limited to, being non-refundable, non-date-changeable, and subject to cancellation and/or amendment fees. Travel documents cannot be transferred to another person to use. All airline tickets must be issued in the name of the passport/photo identity holder. An incorrect name on a booking may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings on your documentation will be your responsibility if we are not advised at the time of booking. Please reconfirm your flights at least 24 hours prior to departure.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send you an electronic pre-departure packet containing all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, insurance information, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Electronic final documents and air e-tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Your program offers the ability to purchase at additional cost roundtrip, economy-class flights between (WASHINGTON DC), and the destination city noted in the itinerary. Rates are based on special promotional fares; cancellation fees apply once tickets are issued. Departures from other cities in the USA are possible at additional cost; inquire at the time of reservation. Please note that these promotional fares are subject to 10 passengers traveling together or to departure. Bulkhead and/or emergency row seats can only be requested at airport check-in on the day of departure. Classic Escapes cannot provide the Comfort Seating Service as this is available on specific flights subject to availability and commercial laws as determined by each airline and at their own discretion. Boarding passes are generally issued at the airport on the day of departure, or in some cases if you pre-check yourself 24 hours prior to departure. You may inquire about seat changes during check-in at the airport, based on availability and is at the sole discretion of airline staff.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: Check on the airline’s website to enquire who their partners are. Obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit.

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

FLIGHT CONFIRMATION: We strongly suggest that you reconfirm exact flight times with the carrier prior to departure. Air travelers are required to check in at least 2 hours prior to departure time for domestic flights and 3 hours for international flights and must report to the gate at least 30 minutes prior to departure time. Failure to comply may result in the loss of the seat to another passenger.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: Federal law prohibits passengers from bringing hazardous materials on the aircraft. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in the passenger’s luggage or on the passenger’s person. A violation can result in five years’ imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radiopharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in the passenger’s luggage and certain smoking materials carried on the passenger’s person. For further information, each passenger should contact the relevant airline representative(s) on their itinerary. Restrictions on hazardous materials are listed http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items.
INSECTICIDE NOTICE: Some countries require insecticide spraying of aircraft prior to a flight or while you are on the aircraft. We recommend that you refer to the Department of Transportation’s list of airports in countries that require airlines to treat the passenger cabin with insecticides prior to the flight or while on the aircraft available at https://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements.

BAGGAGE & FEES: Additional fees for baggage may apply. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding its checked baggage policies. On average, international flights from the USA allow one piece of checked luggage, not exceeding 50 pounds, plus a carry-on piece not exceeding 15 pounds; however, we always recommend that you check your airline’s policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. There may also be luggage and weight restrictions for your destination and that information will be forwarded to you with your pre-departure material and also be listed on your final documents.

AIRLINE CLAUSE: The airlines concerned are not to be held liable for any act, omission or event during the time the passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passengers’ tickets in use by the airline or by other carriers concerned when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of these tickets and/or passengers.

DELAYS: We cannot be held liable for any delays or additional costs incurred as a result of airlines not running to schedule. Any additional land or air fees imposed on account of airline delays will be borne by the traveler.
