Dear W&L Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

We invite you to discover the majestic scenery and fascinating history of North America’s Great Lakes. On W&L’s latest voyage across our nation’s “inland seas,” we’ll behold the dramatic shorelines and pine-forested islands of the Great Lakes as well as many charming small towns and three major cities of America’s heartland.

We’ll begin with a one-night hotel stay in Chicago, followed by a tour of Chicago’s many attractions before boarding the M/V Ocean Voyager. From the city’s revitalized lakefront, we’ll sail north on Lake Michigan for a day on Mackinac Island. Here we’ll ride in a horse-drawn carriage, enjoy a luncheon at the iconic Grand Hotel and delight in the city’s Victorian-era charm. Our next call will be the oldest city in the Midwest, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, at the intersection of three of the Great Lakes: Huron, Superior, and Michigan. At Whitefish Bay, we’ll observe the action at the Soo Locks, one of the world’s largest and busiest sets of locks. Thereafter, sailing into Lake Huron, we’ll call at Manitoulin Island, where we’ll discover ancient native traditions amidst the island’s lush scenery.

After a scenic voyage on Lake Huron, we’ll call at one of America’s most vibrant cities, Detroit, Michigan, where popular cultural history comes vividly to life at the Motown Museum. Next, we’ll cruise along Lake Erie to Cleveland, Ohio, where we’ll experience the city’s remarkable renaissance along with several cultural sites, including the magnificent Cleveland Museum of Art. After crossing Lake Erie and passing through the Welland Canal, our cruise climaxes with a visit to the thundering beauty of Niagara Falls.

Our tour concludes after a short voyage across Lake Ontario to beautiful Toronto, where we’ll have the option of an extended post-cruise extension in one of Canada’s most fascinating capitals.

Featuring a tastefully appointed interior with only 101 staterooms, the M/V Ocean Voyager well expresses the grace of small-ship cruising. To enrich our travel experience, this voyage includes a stimulating variety of expert-led shore excursions as well as onboard talks by W&L faculty escort Tim Diette, professor of economics. We hope you’ll join us as we explore some of North America’s most remarkable treasures.

Sincerely,

Robert Fure, Director
The W&L Traveller
