English novelist Jane Austen (1775-1817) is famous the world over for her deftly drawn critiques of Georgian society. Following the maxim that to know a person one must walk a mile in her shoes, we'll follow Jane's footsteps on an exclusive tour of the houses and settings of Austen's life in the south of England.

Following a night in historic Windsor, we'll travel to Austen's home in Chawton, a quaint village of rose-covered cottages, where she wrote the majority of her published works. Chawton House, once owned by Austen's brother, is now a virtual museum of her novels, as well as the works of other women's writing. We'll also visit nearby Berkeley Castle, where Lady Elizabeth Craven, a Georgian writer who specialized in travel writing, led a different sort of life. Included in our itinerary are architectural showplaces such as Wilton House, Montacute House, and Bowood, each of them featured as locations for film adaptations of Austen's work.

To understand Georgian society more widely, we'll explore the towns of Wells, Lacock and Salisbury, as well as the country's only surviving rococo garden. Bath offers the best evocation of Regency society. Our private visits to No. 1 Royal Crescent, the Assembly Rooms where Austen attended balls, and the Fashion Museum with its period gowns, all evoke the vivid settings of Austen's fiction. Finally, we'll pay our respects to the beloved novelist at Winchester Cathedral, where she is buried.

Our splendid accommodations for this tour include two nights in the Windsor area, one in the heart of town and one on the banks of the River Thames, and seven nights at Bailbrook House Hotel, dating back to the 1790s and surrounded by acres of private grounds. Located minutes from Bath, Bailbrook will give us easy access to all of the beautiful landscapes, stunning architecture and lavish interiors so artfully described in Austen's writing.
Traveling With You

Taylor Walle is an assistant professor of English at Washington and Lee University. She teaches eighteenth- and early nineteenth-century British literature, including classes on Jane Austen, Mary Shelley, the Gothic novel, the transatlantic slave trade, and the “mad, bad, and dangerous” women of the eighteenth century. She has published articles on Jane Austen, James Boswell, and eighteenth-century female grammarians, and she is currently at work on a book project entitled Vulgar Recitations: Speech and the Bid for Authority in Eighteenth-Century British Literature. She holds a PhD in English from UCLA and an MSt in Women’s Studies from Oxford.

Itinerary

Saturday–Sunday, June 4–5
HOME / LONDON, ENGLAND
Upon arrival at Heathrow airport, transfer to our hotel overlooking Windsor Castle. In the evening join the group for a welcome reception at the hotel. Dinner is enjoyed independently to take advantage of the ideal location in Windsor.
MACDONALD WINDSOR HOTEL (R)

Monday, June 6
CHAWTON HOUSE LIBRARY / JANE AUSTEN HOUSE / HINTON AMPNER
Following our first lecture by Taylor Walle, travel to Chawton House, an Elizabethan manor house that once belonged to Jane Austen's brother, Edward Austen Knight. It now accommodates a unique library of titles focusing on women's writing in English from 1600 to 1830. Continue to Jane Austen's House Museum, where she spent the last eight years of her life. This is where she did the majority of her mature writing. Lunch is at a local pub before visiting Hinton Ampner, an elegant country house with particularly impressive gardens. Check into the Bailbrook House Hotel, our beautiful home for the next seven nights.
BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,L,D)

Tuesday, June 7
PAINSWICK ROCOCO GARDEN / BERKELEY CASTLE
Begin the day with a morning lecture before traveling to Painswick Rococo Garden. Initially designed in the 1740s as a venue for hosting intimate garden parties, it is now the only complete Rococo garden in England. Following our privately guided tour, enjoy lunch in the Gardens. Continue to Berkeley Castle for an exploration of this 11th-century estate that is still home to the Berkeley family. The state apartments showcase beautiful collections of furniture and rare paintings. The evening is left free to explore at leisure.
BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,L)

Wednesday, June 8
SALISBURY / MOMPESSON HOUSE / WILTON HOUSE
Spend this morning in Salisbury beginning with a visit to the famed Salisbury Cathedral, boasting the tallest spire in Britain. Discover over 750 years of history including the best-preserved original 1215 Magna Carta document. Continue to Mompesson House, a perfect example of a Queen Anne style town house located in the heart of Salisbury's Cathedral Close. The house was featured in the award-winning film Sense and Sensibility based on Jane Austen's novel. Enjoy lunch and a guided tour at Wilton House, an excellent example of Palladian architecture. This impressive property has been a family home for over 450 years. Set in 21 acres of landscaped parkland, the house has also been a filming location, including for the 2005 film adaptation of Pride and Prejudice. The evening is again at leisure.
BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,L,D)

Thursday, June 9
BATH
Famously home to Jane Austen from 1801 to 1806, Bath has remained faithful to its Roman and Regency roots. Begin the day at No. 1 Royal Crescent, a town house that recreates a wonderful picture of life for both the wealthy and their servants in the Georgian era. Then embark on a Jane Austen-themed walking tour through town to view her former homes and the highlights of the city that features so much in her writing. Mid-day is free for an independent lunch before gathering at the Assembly Rooms for an afternoon tour. Once the hub of the Georgian social calendar, the Assembly...
Rooms were an important setting for Jane Austen's novels Persuasion and Northanger Abbey. Visit the Fashion Museum, founded in 1963, housing a world-class collection of contemporary and historic dress from the 18th century through modern day. Return to the hotel for dinner followed by an evening at leisure.

BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,D)
Friday, June 10
BOWOOD HOUSE / LACOCK ABBEY
Venture this morning to Bowood House, the family home of the Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne. Marvel at this estate's unique collection of historical artifacts and family heirlooms built up over 250 years, from Queen Victoria's wedding chair to Napoleon's death mask. Outside are 100 acres of beautiful parkland, designed by 'Capability' Brown. Bowood was also used as a filming location for the 2007 TV film Northanger Abbey. Continue to the village of Lacock, dubbed one of the most beautiful examples of unspoiled medieval villages in England. Delight in walking the charming streets and enjoying lunch independently before touring the 13th century Lacock Abbey, today the family home of William Henry Fox Talbot.

BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,D)
Sunday, June 11
MONTACUTE HOUSE / WELLS
Following our final lecture, depart for a visit to the beautiful Montacute House. This splendid mansion of golden stone with oak-paneled rooms and the longest gallery in England is filled with treasures, including Tudor and Elizabethan portraits on loan from the National Portrait Gallery. Several scenes of the 1995 film version of Sense and Sensibility were filmed here. Sample local specialties over lunch at the Fountain Inn, a traditional British pub. Spend the afternoon exploring Wells, boasting many springs rising near its magnificent 12th-century cathedral and unique moated Bishop's Palace. The rest of the day is at leisure.

BAILBROOK HOUSE HOTEL (B,L)
Monday, June 12
WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL / THE Vyne
Depart this morning for the medieval city and former royal capital of Winchester. The awe-inspiring cathedral is just one of the historic highlights; its hidden treasures include the tomb of Jane Austen and the Winchester Bible, one of the finest 12th-century bibles to have survived. Enjoy free time and lunch in Winchester before continuing by motorcoach to The Vyne, a splendid Tudor red-brick mansion set in 13 acres of attractive gardens. During a guided tour, learn how this estate was built for King Henry VIII's Lord Chamberlain before becoming the Chute family home for over 300 years. Return to Windsor for a festive farewell dinner overlooking the River Thames to celebrate our shared adventure.

RUNNEYMEADE HOTEL (B,D)
Tuesday, June 13
WINDSOR / HOME
Following breakfast, transfer to London for flights home. (B)
