INSIDE STORY

LIPSCOMB'S BOYD HIGHLIGHT 2024 ACADEMIC ALL-ASUN TEAM

Derrin Boyd, Lipscomb
3.89 GPA | Master of Business Administration
The Bisons' first ASUN Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipient

Lipscomb's Derrin Boyd was tabbed the Atlantic Sun Conference Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, announced Monday by the league office. Smith is joined by seven other Men's Basketball student-athletes on the Academic All-ASUN Team.

Smith, who earned her first Academic All-ASUN selection, owns a 3.89 GPA as she pursues his Master of Business Administration. He is the first Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year from Lipscomb. The Princeton, Ky., ranks third in the conference in scoring this season with 17.6 points per game. He played in 22 contests with 20 starts this season and averaged 3.7 rebounds per contest along with racking up 40 made three-pointers and 30 assists.

The Academic All-ASUN Team recognizes student-athletes who excel both on the field and in the classroom and exemplify the ASUN's mission of Building Winners for Life. All the members of the team boast a 3.50 cumulative grade point average or better and participated in at least half of their team's games.

2023 ASUN CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

Kennesaw State 67, Liberty 66

2023: #1 Kennesaw State 67, #2 Liberty 66

- The first Division I Men's Basketball Championship for Kennesaw State came on the Owls' home floor after the team defeated Liberty inside the Convocation Center.

2022: #2W Bellarmine 77, #2E Jacksonville 72

- Bellarmine captured its first ASUN Championship title in the Knights' first-ever trip to the championship title game and the program's second season competing on the Division I level.

2021: #1 Liberty 79, #5 North Alabama 75

- Liberty became just the second team in conference history to capture three consecutive ASUN Championship titles and headed to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

2020: #1 Liberty 73, #3 Lipscomb 57

- For the second year in a row Liberty was crowned the ASUN Champions as they defeated Lipscomb for the second-straight year in front of 7,728 fans. The Flames scored 20 points off turnovers and gave out 17 assists on 28 field goals.

2019: #2 Liberty 74, #1 Lipscomb 68

- In its first season in the ASUN Conference, Liberty upset top-seeded Lipscomb in front of an Allen Arena record crowd of 5,687. The tightly-contested game saw 23 lead changes and six ties before the Flames' 74-68 win.

2018: #2 Lipscomb 108, #1 FGCU 96

- The Bisons defeated the Eagles on their home court to head to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. Lipscomb held off a furious second-half comeback by the Eagles for the 108-96 victory, marking the most combined points in an ASUN Final surpassing the 1985 Final.

2017: #1 FGCU 77, #3 North Florida 61

- FGCU made it back-to-back ASUN Championships with a convincing victory in the final against UNF. Brandon Goodwin earned MVP honors after scoring 19 points.

2016: #4 FGCU 80, #7 Stetson 78 (OT)

- FGCU earned its return trip to March Madness as the Eagles defeated upset-minded Stetson. Marc-Eddy Norelia earned Tournament MVP honors, while Zach Johnson's block at the end of OT sealed the win.

2015: #1 North Florida 63, #3 USC Upstate 57

- North Florida won its first-ever ASUN Championship in front of a tournament-record crowd of 6,155 fans at UNF Arena. Demarcus Daniels took home MVP honors with 22 points in the Final.

2014: #2 Mercer 68, #1 FGCU 20

- The Bears and Eagles collided in the ASUN Championship Final for the second-straight season, but it was Mercer that landed the conference crown as Tournament MVP Langston Hall turned in 15 points, seven rebounds and three assists.

2013: #2 FGCU 88, #1 Mercer 75

- FGCU began its run through March with three wins at Mercer's Hawkins Arena ending the championship with a 88-75 win vs. top-seeded Mercer. Brett Comer claimed the Tournament MVP honors as he scored 21 in the ASUN Final with five assists.

2012: #1 Belmont 83, #6 FGCU 69

- The Bruins set a league record with their fifth ASUN title. Belmont defeated No. 6 seed FGCU, who appeared in the championship final in its first season of eligibility.

2011: #1 Belmont 87, #6 North Florida 46

- The Bruins tied the ASUN record with their fourth conference title as Belmont set the league record with 30 wins. Belmont's 41-point win in the final set a conference record.

2010: #5 ETSU 72, #6 Mercer 66

- After the regular season ended with a four-way tie, ETSU survived an upset-centric tournament in which three of top-four seeds lost in the quarterfinals at Mercer's Hawkins Arena.

2009: #2 ETSU 85, #1 Jacksonville 68

- The Buccaneers won their first of two ASUN Championships as Kevin Tiggs, the Tournament MVP, led the Bucs to a 17-point win vs. Jacksonville in the final.

2008: #1 Belmont 79, #2 Jacksonville 61

- Belmont became the first team in ASUN history to win three-straight conference championships. However, it marked the first for the Bruins as the top seed.

2007: #2 Belmont 94, #1 ETSU 67

- Justin Hare became the third ASUN player to win two Tournament MVP awards as he led the Bruins to a 27-point win vs. the host, ETSU.

2006: #2 Belmont 74, #1 Lipscomb 69 (OT)

- The "Battle of the Boulevard" came to the ASUN Final as the Bruins defeated Lipscomb in the second-ever overtime game in a tournament final.

2005: #2 UCF 63, #1 Gardner-Webb 54

- The Golden Knights set a conference record with their fourth conference crown. UCF's Gary Johnson won the Tournament MVP honors.

2004: #2 UCF 60, #1 Troy 55

- UCF won its third conference title with a five-point win vs. the top-seeded and defending champions, Trojans of Troy. It also marked the first victory for the two seed against the top seed in the championship final.

2003: #3 Troy 80, #5 UCF 69

- The Trojans captured their first ASUN title after finishing as the runner-up in 2001. Troy's Ben Fletcher earned MVP honors.

2002: #3 FAU 76, #1 Ga. State 75

- Florida Atlantic won the first Atlantic Sun title as the conference underwent a name change from the TAAC. The Owls upset top-seeded Georgia State, but GSU's Thomas Terrell still won the MVP honors - his second-straight.

ASUN CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

2001: No. 1 Ga. State 79, No. 2 Troy 55

• Georgia State tied the conference record with 29 wins en route to the program's second TAAC title. The Panthers would defeat Wisconsin as an 11-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

2000: No. 3 Samford 78, No. 5 UCF 69

• The Bulldogs won back-to-back tournament titles becoming the third team to accomplish the feat. Marc Salyers earned his second-straight MVP honor and became the first TAAC student-athlete to win the award twice.

1999: No. 1 Samford 89, No. 2 UCF 67

• Following a 15-1 conference season, Samford became the first program from the state of Alabama to win the TAAC Championship.

1998: No. 1 Coll. of Charleston 72, No. 2 FIU 63

• The Cougars became the second program to win back-to-back TAAC titles as Sedric Webber landed the MVP accolade.

1997: No. 1E Coll. of Charleston 83, No. 2E FIU 73

• College of Charleston became the first TAAC program to post an undefeated conference season and win the tournament crown. The Cougars advanced to defeat Maryland in the NCAA Tournament.

1996: No. 6 UCF 86, No. 5 Mercer 77

• UCF won its second title in three seasons as Mercer earned runner-up honors for the second-straight season. Harry Kennedy landed MVP honors.

1995: No. 8 FIU 68, No. 3 Mercer 57

• FIU upset third-seeded Mercer to set the TAAC record for lowest seed to win the conference championship as a eight seed.

1994: No. 1 UCF 70, No. 2 Stetson 67

• UCF became the first program from the state of Florida to win the conference title as the Golden Knights beat in-state rival Stetson by three points.

1993: No Tournament Held

1992: No. 1 Ga. Southern 95, No. 2 Ga. State 82

• In a "Peach State" battle, Georgia Southern downed Georgia State for the Eagles' third TAAC title. Three schools from Georgia made the semifinals.

1991: No. 5 Ga. State 80, No. 6 UALR 60

• Georgia State became the lowest seeded team to win the conference crown as a five seed. The Panthers broke UALR's three-straight title runs.

1990: No. 3 UALR 105, No. 1 Centenary 95

• The Trojans became the first team to win back-to-back TAAC titles as well as three overall conference crowns. Derrick Owens was tabbed MVP.

1989: No. 2 UALR 100, No. 5 Centenary 72

• UALR broke its own TAAC record with a 28-point win vs. Centenary in the championship final. Jeff Cummings earned MVP honors.

1988: No. 3 UTSA 76, No. 1 Ga. Southern 69 (OT)

• UTSA survived the first overtime championship final vs. top-seeded Georgia Southern to win its only TAAC Championship.

1987: No. 4 Ga. Southern 49, No. 3 Stetson 46

• Georgia Southern edged Stetson in the lowest scoring title game in conference history. The Eagles' Jeff Sanders took home the MVP award.

1986: No. 1 UALR 85, No. 6 Centenary 63

• The Trojans won their first TAAC Tournament crown after finishing as runner-up on two previous occasions. UALR would advance to the NCAA Tournament and defeat third-seeded Notre Dame for the TAAC's first NCAA win.

1985: No. 2 Mercer 105, No. 4 UALR 96

• The Bears took home their second TAAC title of the decade behind the play of future NBA player and head coach, Sam Mitchell.

1984: No. 1 Houston Baptist 81, No. 2 Samford 76

• Houston Baptist won its first TAAC title and set a league record with 24 wins. Samford's Craig Beard collected Tournament MVP honors in the loss.

1983: No. 3 Ga. Southern 68, No. 1 UALR 67

• Georgia Southern captured its first of three TAAC titles by upsetting UALR, who entered the title game with 23 wins, which at the time was tied for the conference record.

1982: No. 3 UL-Monroe 98, No. 4 Centenary 85

• UL-Monroe became the first TAAC team to win two tournament titles. The championship final was the first not to feature the top-seeded squad.

1981: No. 3 Mercer 72, No. 1 Houston Baptist 67

• Mercer claimed its first of two TAAC Championships by defeating Houston Baptist in Shreveport, La. The Bears became the first TAAC team to participate in the NCAA Tournament.

1980: No. 3 Centenary 79, No. 1 UL-Monroe 77

• Led by Tournament MVP George Lett, Centenary upset top-seeded UL-Monroe in the championship final.

1979: No. 1 UL-Monroe 90, No. 2 Mercer 69

• Previously named Northeast Louisiana claimed the first Trans America Athletic Conference title as NLU served as host of the first two championships. Calvin Natt claimed Tournament MVP honors.
