

Building goes upwards, go into building
 Using an escalator - definitely more ritzy, expensive

Copley Place

Lots of Highend
 shops including Neiman Marcus,
 Barneys New York,
 Ferragamo,
 Mont Blanc,
 Tiffany & Co

Not much sitting space

Central waterfall area an attempt at greenery - however still feels like a
 cave/tunnel

Darker lighting

Prudential

Mixture of higher-end stores and more affordable locales, but still lots of expensive brand names

More seating space in larger green areas

Unlike copley in that mostly one floor, ceiling is all glass - kind of nice mix of outdoor mall + indoor shopping complex Like copley in that entrances are escalators, one separated from outside - very insulated

Not as expensive/ritzy as Copley
