A-10 NOTEBOOK

- Charlotte placed fifth at the Gopher Invitational, in a tournament that resembled an NCAA Regional field, with two teams that finished last year in Golfstat.com's top 20, seven that finished in the top 50 and 12 in the top 100. Charlotte finished behind four teams that finished in the top 50, last year and beat seven top 100 teams, including top 50's Iowa, Kent State and Liberty.
- This week was the collegiate debut of first-year Charlotte head coach Ryan Cabbage, a longtime Auburn assistant.
- Saint Joseph's started the season young, with two freshman competed on the five-man squad with a third playing as an individual.
- SJU's Jimmy Bea posted his sixth top-20 finish in last 13 events at the Navy Fall Invitational.
- The Bonnies started last season the same exact way they did this year – with a 14th-place finish at the Missouri Tiger Intercollegiate, followed by a second-place finish at the Little Three Championship. Next up, St. Bonaventure will host the 23rd Annual Leo Keenan Invitational at Olean's Bartlett Country Club where both the Bonnies and McKenna will be looking to defend their invitational crowns. Bonaventure won the 11-team Keenan last year for the 14th time, and McKenna won the medalist honors after shooting a final-round 67. That score was the best ever final round by a medalist, and the third-best round in tournament history.
- La Salle's 602 team score at the Navy fall Invitational was the Explorers' best score since the fall of 2006.
