Jim Dietz

HEAD COACH
21st Season
Northeastern, '72

Entering his 21st year at the helm of the University of Massachusetts women's crew team during 2014-15, Jim Dietz has molded the Minutewomen program into one of the nation's finest.

The only crew coach in UMass history, the Minutewomen have dominated regular-season racing to capture 14 Atlantic 10 Championships under Dietz's direction. His squads have produced 63 Atlantic 10 gold medals in 12 league championship events, including 10 in 19 starts by his varsity eight boats. For his efforts, Dietz has been honored as Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year on eight occasions.

Massachusetts earned its 14th Atlantic 10 Championship under Dietz's tutelage when the Minutewomen took the top spot at the 2014 edition of the event. The Varsity 8+ and Varsity 4+ boats earned gold medals for UMass, which outscored Rhode Island, 52-50 to take the top spot and earn the automatic bid to the NCAA Championships. Dietz took home his eighth Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year Award following the event while four Minutewomen picked up all-conference honors.

Dietz led the Minutewomen to their 13th conference title in 2009, after finishing second in 2008 to Rhode Island. Massachusetts defeated the defending champions by 24 points in the championships, 141-117. UMass took five gold medals during the event, highlighted by a first place finish in the Second Varsity Eight. In addition to the team championship, three Minutewomen were named Atlantic 10 First Team All-Conference.

Recognized internationally for his coaching ability, Dietz was inducted into the National Rowing Hall of Fame in March of 2010, and was also elected as the Vice Chair to the Board of Directors of USRowing in February of 2010. He guided UMass to a fourth-place team finish at the 1998 NCAA Championship in Gainesville, Ga., and his varsity eights earned silver medals at the 1997 and 1998 NCAA meets. Six of his student-athletes have earned a total of seven Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association All-America citations.

Dietz's success does not end on the water, as his program has produced a league-leading 39 Atlantic 10 Academic All-Conference performers, 23 Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association National Scholar Athletes who have earned a total of 33 citations, and four U.S. Rowing Association Academic All-Americans. In addition, his teams annually lead UMass' Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll selections.

Before coming to Amherst to start the UMass program from scratch, Dietz spent nine years as the head coach of the Coast Guard Academy crew program (1985-1994). Though his primary responsibilities were with the men's heavyweight eight, he was also in charge of the overall program, which included four assistant coaches and more than 90 student-athletes.

Dietz's crew experience began in 1964, when he competed for the New York Athletic Club in all classes of rowing and sculling events. As a high school student, he won all United States and Canadian Scholastic championships in single and double sculls from 1964 through 1967, and won the first Junior World Championship in single sculls at Ratzeburg, Germany, in 1967.

During his competitive years, Dietz won 45 United States and 37 Canadian national championship titles. He was a member of almost every U.S. National Team from 1967-1983, including U.S. Olympic entries in 1972, 1976 and 1980. In addition, Dietz captured medals at the Pan American Games in 1967, 1975, 1979 and 1983. He was also a member of seven World Championship teams.

A 1972 graduate of Northeastern University with a bachelor of science degree in marketing, Dietz has been inducted into the Northeastern University Hall of Fame, as well as the New York Athletic Club (NYAC) Hall of Fame. A Veteran Award winner of the NYAC and a Power Ten Award winner of Manhattan, Dietz also earned the prestigious Athlete of the Quarter Century honor for his past performances at the Head of the Charles Regatta.

Since 1976, Dietz has been involved with the United States Olympic Committee, and in 1988 and 1992 he served as the U.S. Olympic Quad Coach in Seoul, South Korea, and Barcelona, Spain.

In 1987, Dietz founded the Thames River Sculls, a non-profit sculling center. Over the years, members of this program have won numerous titles at the U.S. Scholastic championship and U.S.R.A. Elite Nationals. Several members have gone on to race for the United States on World and Olympic teams. The Thames River/Pre-Elite women's crews have participated in the Nation's Cup Regatta (under 23 World Championships) winning the 1996 meet in Belgium.

Dietz coached the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team in Sydney, Australia, taking the bronze medal in the women's lightweight double. In 1999, he led the U.S. National Team, taking medals at both the Pan American Games and the World Rowing Championships. In 2003, his women's lightweight double finished fourth at the World Championship in Milan, Italy.

Dietz, and his wife Pamela, who have two children, James II and Michael, reside in Amherst.

Andrea enters her sixth season on the coaching staff and will be serving her third season in the assistant coach position. She serves as the walk-on student-athlete coordinator, heading up the recruitment of current UMass students.

In the 2011 season, Andrea was hired as a full-time assistant coach. Prior to this, she served as the graduate assistant coach for two seasons. As the graduate assistant coach, Andrea served as the walk-on novice coach, where she taught rowing basics to the players new to the sport.

Andrea rowed for UMass from 2005-2009 as a member of the Varsity Eight, helping win three Atlantic 10 Championships during her tenure.

1871 CLUB

The 1871 Club was established to recognize the on-the-water accomplishments of the men and women who have taken their pursuit of rowing excellence beyond the University of Massachusetts Crew. The name is derived from the first crew to represent the Massachusetts Agricultural College in collegiate athletic competition in 1871.

To gain induction, a rower is required to be named to the United States National Rowing Team or have a victory in a senior or elite National Championship event. In the 30 years since the first member was inducted, the club has grown to include Olympians and a World Champion. We are proud of their efforts and accomplishments and hope they continue on their chosen path of hard work, humility and dedication.
