Discussion Questions:

1. What stories of God's faithfulness do you remember and tell yourself and others? If you don't, what stories can you tell of God's faithfulness to you?
2. What words come to mind first and most frequently when you experience a challenge? Are they the words of God?
3. How can you begin to let the words of God give you encouragement and hope in challenges?
4. Who or what are you quick to give credit to when you experience deliverance or freedom from hardship?
5. What does praise look like in your life? What are different ways you can praise God outside of Sunday mornings?
