

Mountville Rubber, LLC is pleased to announce that we have purchased new Moving Die Rheometers (MDR's) to replace our existing rheology testing equipment and we are upgrading our laboratory software. This purchase will improve the reliability and accuracy of our rubber testing and provide automation for submitting quality control reports. Installation is expected to be completed in January 2014.