ROLE OF THE WIC PROGRAM
With firm commitment to safeguarding and advancing the nutrition status and health of mothers and children and to promoting breastfeeding in the U.S., the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) works within each state to improve healthcare access for low and moderate income women and children with, or at risk of developing, nutrition-related health problems, including obesity and type 2 diabetes. WIC provides nutrition education and healthy foods enabling families to make lifelong healthy eating and lifestyle choices. The foods in the WIC food packages are specifically selected for their nutritional value to supplement the dietary needs of participants to ensure good health, growth and development. HEALTHY EATING
WIC promotes healthy eating and healthy foods to help families make healthy choices. The WIC food package includes fruits, vegetables, low-fat dairy, and whole grains. The food package helps combat food insecurity and contributes to healthy diets which aid in reducing obesity and chronic disease.

BREASTFEEDING
Research shows that breastfeeding provides numerous health benefits to both the mother and her baby, helping to reduce healthcare costs. Breastfeeding lowers a child's risk of obesity, type 2 diabetes, and reduces WIC's largest public breastfeeding promotion program in the nation, providing mothers with education and support.

PROGRAM INTEGRITY
Participants and staff value the experience, better access and delivery as WIC aims to implement Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) nationwide by 2020. EBT reduces opportunities for welfare food price fraud and abuse.

WIC helps families combat food insecurity and nutrition-related health problems including obesity and type 2 diabetes.

VOICES OF MASSACHUSETTS WIC PARTICIPANTS

“I was a single mom of three children and WIC helped me survive some hard times. I knew if I didn’t have anything I always had food to feed my family.”
—WIC Participant, Massachusetts

“I felt supported by a group of women that encouraged me to live a healthy lifestyle while breastfeeding and making healthy food choices for me and my growing son. The most important choice that I made while on WIC was that I made a commitment to be a cook and to make foods from scratch using whole food ingredients. WIC provided a stepping stone for my family that embraced us, listened to our concerns, gave us recipe suggestions and never judged us.”
—WIC Participant, Massachusetts
