

One Fund Boston Claims by Category and Payment

In total, the One Fund Administrator Kenneth Feinberg distributed $60,952,000 to 232 eligible claimants at the end of June. This is all of the money collected by One Fund Boston through June 26, 2013.

- A total of 6 eligible claimants in Category A each received $2,195,000. This category includes loss of life and those who sustained double amputations of limbs or permanent brain damage as a result of the Marathon tragedy.
- A total of 14 eligible claimants in Category B each received $1,195,000. This category includes those who sustained amputation of a limb as a result of the Marathon tragedy.
- A total of 69 eligible claimants in Category C each received between $125,000 and $948,300, as detailed in the list below. This category includes those who were physically injured and hospitalized for one or more nights between April 15, 2013 and May 15, 2013 due to physical injuries resulting from the Marathon tragedy. They received payments determined by length of hospital stay:
  - 10 eligible claimants received $948,300 for 32 or more overnights
  - 5 eligible claimants received $735,000 for 24-31 overnights
  - 5 eligible claimants received $580,000 for 16-23 overnights
  - 15 eligible claimants received $480,000 for 8-15 overnights
  - 16 eligible claimants received $275,000 for 3-7 overnights
  - 18 eligible claimants received $125,000 for 1-2 overnights
- A total of 143 eligible claimants in Category D each received $8,000. This category includes those who were physically injured as a result of the Marathon tragedy who were treated on an emergency outpatient basis and released without an overnight hospital stay.
