

Bonk, Inc. Regains Compliance with Nasdaq Minimum Bid Price Requirement

Strategic Capital Restructuring Successfully Secures Continued Listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market; Delisting Risk Removed

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA / ACCESS Newswire / January 5, 2026 / Bonk, Inc. (Nasdaq:BNKK) (the "Company"), a company evolving to bridge the gap between traditional public markets and the digital asset ecosystem, today announced that it has received a formal notification letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq").

The letter confirmed that the Company has successfully regained compliance with the minimum bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2).

To regain compliance, the Company's common stock was required to maintain a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 or more for at least 10 consecutive business days. Nasdaq has confirmed that for the period from December 11, 2025 to December 24, 2025, the closing bid price of the Company's common stock has met this requirement. Accordingly, Nasdaq considers the matter closed, and the Company's continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market is secured.

"Regaining full compliance with Nasdaq was a critical priority for our Board and management team," said Jarrett Boon, CEO of Bonk, Inc. "This achievement validates the difficult but necessary strategic decisions we made regarding our capital structure in Q4. With our listing status secure, a debt-free balance sheet, and our digital asset revenue engines actively generating cash flow, we enter 2026 with a solid foundation. We can now focus our full attention on execution and growth, free from the distractions of compliance issues."
