

Nexscient® Launches NXNT Labs

Accelerating Commercialization of AI-Driven Enterprise Applications

LOS ANGELES, CA / ACCESS Newswire / February 3, 2025 / Nexscient, Inc. (OTCQB:NXNT), a leading innovator in artificial intelligence (AI) applications and intelligent enterprise solutions, is proud to announce the launch of its new business unit, NXNT Labs ("Labs"). This groundbreaking initiative is dedicated to fostering collaboration with corporate partners, academic institutions, and research organizations to drive innovation and accelerate the adoption of cutting-edge technologies, including AI, quantum computing, and blockchain, across diverse industries.

"With NXNT Labs, we are creating a focused platform to fast-track the commercialization and deployment of AI-driven products and services," said Fred E. Tannous, President & CEO of Nexscient. "This initiative positions Nexscient as a key player in turning emerging technologies into real-world solutions. It also establishes a collaborative ecosystem that unites entrepreneurs, corporate partners, and academic leaders to unlock transformative innovations," he added.

Consistent with Nexscient's mission, NXNT Labs aims to deliver strategic guidance, financial resources, and access to key industry stakeholders to catalyze the adoption of emerging technologies. The unit will also advocate for the shared benefits of these technologies, ensuring a positive impact on industries and communities alike.

"The establishment of NXNT Labs is a pivotal step in refining our approach to partnerships and research collaborations," Tannous continued. "Our goal is to advance AI and other transformative technologies by creating an environment where innovation thrives, resulting in new opportunities and groundbreaking solutions for global challenges."

This launch marks a critical milestone in Nexscient's growth strategy. While the company continues to enhance its flagship AegisOne intelligent enterprise application, NXNT Labs will unlock additional value by empowering external partners to integrate AI into solutions for industries such as manufacturing, cybersecurity, and financial technology. Moreover, the division will spearhead advancements in Generative AI, redefining creative possibilities and expanding the boundaries of content creation.
