

Volunteer Reference Form for the National Bahá'í Schools

If you are providing a reference on behalf of an individual applying to volunteer at the centers of learning, please complete and return this form to the Learning Coordinator directly at VolunteerServices@usbnc.org. Please note that you are being asked to complete this form as an individual, and not on behalf of an institution or organization.

Service at the centers of learning is challenging and requires both physical and mental stamina. Please be frank, loving, and honest in your assessment of the applicant's capacity for this intensive field of service. You can learn more about the volunteer program being applied for by contacting the Learning Coordinators.
