Livestock Weighted Average Report for 11/20/2025 - Final

AUCTION

	This Week	Last Reported 11/13/2025	Last Year
Total Receipts:	1,959	4,346	3,564
Feeder Cattle:	1,959(100.0%)	4,346(100.0%)	3,564(100.0%)

Compared to last week: best test on steers 550 to 649 lbs 25.00 to 30.00 lower on a narrow comparison. Best test on heifers 500 to 549 lbs 16.00 lower. Moderate to good demand for calves today. A totally different offering of calves than seen last week as far as quality. Many plain quality calves in the offering today and also many colored hides, all selling in packages, making it a challenge to put a load of uniform calves together. All calves off the cow and many had full preconditioning. Flesh varied also, from light to moderate plus. A moderate market with a few less buyers and farmer feeders in the seats than last week. Losses on both live and feeder cattle futures again today. This volatility over the last couple weeks has eroded all prior confidence buyers and feeders had coming into this fall marketing season leaving nothing but uncertainty in how to proceed going forward. No feeder cattle next week due to Thanksgiving, a nice line up of bred cattle on Tuesday, November 25, along with the annual pie auction, next feeder cattle sale is Thursday, December 4. Supply included: 100% Feeder Cattle (52% Steers, 48% Heifers). Feeder cattle supply over 600 lbs was 37%.
