Compared to last week, feeders sold 5.00 to 10.00 lower. Heavy rains especially in the southern part of the state made for a good supply of mud and put some much needed water back in stock ponds. Rains were one contributing factor to the lighter runs this week. Conflict in the Middle East is causing volatility in several market sectors also leaked into the ag markets, perhaps keeping a few cattle at home. A few other factors either directly or indirectly ag related all pulling some of the momentum out auction prices, although they remain at historically high levels. The make-up of the feeder offering is also changing along with the seasons. The supply of feeders was light to moderate, big strings of over wintered feeders are scarce, especially on the lighter end. Most of the new year/spring run has already been marketed, and summer grazing destinations have been determined. Many of the calves coming to town now carrying a little more flesh and not as likely to have full health and weaning programs. Demand remains good just at lower price levels. A few stick out sales this week of drafts over 20 head included: 33 head of 453 lb. steers at Wheeler Livestock Auction that sold for 585.00.
