Compared to last week, feeders sold 5.00-15.00 lower. Although there were spotty exceptions once again this week. Nearly all sectors of the cattle complex came under pressure this week and did see lower trends. The supply of feeders was moderate the weather hasn't allowed widespread planting to occur yet so that temporary marketing pause for planting really hasn't occurred. Many farmers have turned to grass now and have needs mostly filled but high prices continue to bring calves to town. The majority of the feeder supply was under 600 lbs. this week with quality, condition and health programs or lack of varying widely. Rumors and noise continue to fly around the news circles, which only creates volatility in addition to that there is a typical seasonal dip from around Mid-April to Mid-June. All that being said price levels remain very high. A few stick-out sales this week included: 30 head of 462 lb. steers at Windsor Auction that sold for 577.50. Callaway Livestock Center sold 58 head of 539 lb. steers for 539.00 and 83 head of 553 lb. steers for 527.00.
