Painting Your Own Impression

Objective: Students will create their own impressionist-style artwork.

Instructions:

1. Give students a sheet with a blank scene (e.g., a park, a street, or a garden).
2. Ask them to:
 - Use short, quick strokes with crayons, markers, or paint
 - Add bright colors to show light and feeling
 - Include people doing something simple (like reading or playing)
3. On the back or bottom, ask them to write:
 - What moment they painted
 - What colors they used to show light
 - How they want the viewer to feel
