Capture a Moment in Color

Objective: Students will create their own impressionist-style artwork and analyze their choices.

Instructions:

1. Provide students with a worksheet.
2. Ask them to:
 - Choose a moment from their own life (e.g., walking to school, eating lunch, riding a bus)
 - Sketch or paint their moment using short, visible strokes and bright, broken color
 - Focus on capturing the feeling or atmosphere of the moment
3. On the back or in a writing section, ask students to explain:
 - What moment they chose and why
 - How they used color and brushwork to show light or movement
 - What mood or message they wanted to convey
