

Barnes Foundation, Masterworks Sponsorship

Wilmington Trust is proud to sponsor The Barnes Foundation: Masterworks, a definitive catalogue of the Barnes Foundation's collection, featuring more than 150 reproduced images of some of the most beloved works from the collection, alongside images of the collection's distinctive wall ensembles, with information about the Foundation's educational mission, ensembles, and individual works.

We have a strong heritage of supporting individuals and organizations committed to improving the lives of others, preserving our cultural heritage, and making a difference in our communities. Our professionals live in the communities in which we do business, support local cultural and business organizations, and are easily accessible to our clients.

With roots dating back to its founding by T. Coleman duPont in 1903, Wilmington Trust has been serving successful individuals, families, and businesses for generations. We bring a unique blend of knowledge, experience, and resources to every client relationship that we serve, offering the highest caliber of service from a team of nationally recognized experts. We specialize in providing advice needed to help our clients achieve strategic objectives, address important issues, and maintain a fruitful legacy for the future. Our solutions include strategic investment management, private banking, planning, trust, family education and governance, and family office services.

Backed by the strength and stability of M&T Bank one of the most financially sound institutions in the nation, we believe in cultivating long-term relationships with our clients, built upon a foundation of trust and understanding. By getting to know our clients we can help them face life's transitions and enjoy the peace of mind that comes with financial security.

Wilmington Trust has been a proud sponsor of the Foundation for more than a decade and we are pleased to continue our support as the Barnes Foundation enters its next chapter.
