Baylor is now 35-1 all-time in exhibition contests under Kim Mulkey
Eight of the 12 Lady Bears who saw action scored in double figures
Freshman Queen Egbo led all scorers with 24 points on 10-of-16 shooting and just missed a double-double with nine rebounds
Freshman Honesty Scott-Grayson scored 16 points on near-perfect 6-of-7 shooting (2-of-2 from three) and was a perfect 2-of-2 from the FT line
Scott-Grayson added four assists, three rebounds and three steals to fill the stat sheet
Senior Chloe Jackson had a game-high 7 assists with a perfect 7:0 assists-to-turnover ratio
Senior Kalani Brown had 15 points on perfect 6-of-6 shooting from the field to go along with 7 rebounds
Junior Juicy Landrum made a game-high three 3-pointers, missing just two shots en route to a 13-point game.
Landrum added six assists and four rebounds for Baylor
Freshman NaLyssa Smith scored 15 points on 7-of-11 shooting
Sophomore Moon Ursin had another all-around game, scoring 13 points to go with six rebounds and four assists
Freshman Caitlin Bickle had a game-high four steals and scored 10 points to go along with five rebounds and four assists
The Lady Bears had a stretch of 12 consecutive made field goals (last two shots of third quarter, first 10 shots of fourth quarter)
Baylor shot 63% from the field and held A&M-Commerce to a 38% clip.
The Lady Bears out-rebounded A&M-Commerce 51-19, which included 23 offensive boards that Baylor turned into 30 second-chance points
If this had been a regular-season game, Baylor’s 127 points would rank as the fourth-best scoring effort in school history (record, 140 points vs. Winthrop on 12/15/16)
Baylor forced 30 A&M-Commerce turnovers which turned into 47 points
The Lady Bears’ bench outscored A&M Commerce’s bench 75-24
Baylor won the points in the paint battle by a decisive 84-20 margin
The Lady Bears’ fourth quarter FG% (85%, 17-of-20) would have been a school record if it were a regular-season game
Baylor had seven consecutive made field goals from reserves in the first quarter after Mulkey removed all five starters with 8:23 to play in the first quarter
The game was an exhibition contest and did not count towards either team’s record
