TEAM NOTES
- Baylor improved to 545-98 under 19th-year head coach Kim Mulkey, improving to 2-0 all-time vs. Georgetown.
- Starting lineup for the Lady Bears was Chloe Jackson, Juicy Landrum, DiDi Richards, Lauren Cox, and Kalani Brown, moving to 4-0 as a starting unit.
- Baylor has 50-straight games with a 3-point field goal; the last time the Lady Bears did not connect from beyond the arc was at Texas Feb. 20, 2017 (0-1).
- Baylor out-re bounded Georgetown 50-34, making it 75 of the last 78 games in which the Lady Bears have out-re bounded their opponents.
- The Lady Bears held Georgetown to 26.7% shooting from the field (16-60). In 627 of 642 games under Mulkey, the Lady Bears have held their opponent at or below 50 percent field goal shooting, with only seven of those efforts coming in the last 14 years.
- Baylor assisted on 20 field goals out of 26 attempted; on the season the Lady Bears have assisted on 147 of 206 field goals for a .714 percentage.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES
- Junior Juicy Landrum hit 4-of-10 from 3-point range, the most threes she’s had since hitting three vs. Michigan (3/18/18) in the second round of last year’s NCAA Tournament.
- Landrum finished with 14 points, marking her season high; it was her first game to score in double figures this season and 14th time for her career.
- Landrum led the team with nine rebounds; the 5’8” guard is tied for the team-lead with 46 rebounds on the season with NaLyssa Smith.
- Freshman NaLyssa Smith finished with 14 points, her fifth time in six contests to score in double figures.
- Smith shot 7-of-11 from the floor and overtook the team lead for the season, as she’s shooting .654 though the first six games of the season.
- Kalani Brown’s streak of scoring in double figures was snapped at 23 games. She finished with nine points and six rebounds.
- Senior Chloe Jackson led Baylor with six assists to go with nine points; she has led or tied for the team lead in the last four games for Baylor, and she leads the team with 6.2 assists per contest.
- Junior Lauren Cox had two steals to lead the Lady Bears; it marked the 10th time in her career to lead the team in takeaways.
