We have been very pleased with the support and results we have received from Restaurant Consultants, Inc. While they have a wide range of services, we have used them primarily for critical regulatory / agency relations advice and permitting and licensing services in connection with our 3 restaurants. They are responsive and results oriented. They have an excellent team and a published (and reasonable) rate sheet that allows you to understand costs going in . Apart from the overall team, a special shout out to owner, Joe Spinelli, who when needed has taken a personal role and displayed a real interest in our needs. We use a mix of professional help from lawyers to consultants. We get varying levels of service. Restaurant Consultants is among our very best advisors.
