Dear Joe,

Working with Restaurant Consultants has made what is often a difficult process easy. Your timeliness and attention to detail was crucial in allowing us to open Zola Wine & Kitchen on time and without permitting issue. Additionally our new 11,000 square foot Italian restaurant, Potenza, is set to open in March of 2009 and our experience with you there has been remarkable. This is even more impressive when you consider that this is a historic building just 2 blocks from the White House.

Thanks very much for all your help and guidance.
