

Wicomico County
Recreation &
Parks' Andre Collins

Skills Camp is a five-day summer basketball camp designed for children ages 6-16. In an organized and fun environment, players will learn essential basketball skills using specialized, age-appropriate drills and games. Campers should bring a nonperishable lunch each day.

Andre Collins is one of the most decorated basketball talents of the Eastern Shore. He was honored for his skills in high school and was a key part of a state championship team. He was on the 2002 University of Maryland national championship team, led the NCAA in 3-point field goals and was fourth in the nation in scoring. He also played internationally.
