

Telios Law Sojourner Scholarship Application Form

About Telios Law: Founded in 2012 by Theresa Sidebotham, Telios Law PLLC takes its name from the Greek word telios, which means "complete, perfect, or whole." Telios Law approaches legal services by considering how we can bring wholeness, completeness, or maturity to ministries, businesses, and individuals. This frequently involves representing them in litigation, appeals, and alternatives to litigation, as well as giving legal advice on a variety of issues.

About the Telios Law Sojourner Scholarship: This is a merit-based scholarship award of $1,000 per year, renewable for up to four years. The scholarship was inspired by Theresa's experiences as an MK in Indonesia and being a mother to four missionary kids. It is open to any high school student or recent high school graduate who has spent three or more years of his or her life as a third-culture missionary kid and will be enrolled full-time for the 2019-2020 school year as a freshman or sophomore at a college or university that has an emphasis on spiritual formation in the Christian faith.

APPLICANT STATEMENT AND AUTHORIZATION

I certify that the facts and statements contained in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if awarded a scholarship, falsified statements on this application may be grounds for revocation of the award. I also authorize verification of all or any part of my application. I understand that selected winners will be asked to provide official transcripts, copies of their official SAT or ACT score reports, and a photo of themselves along with permission to post the photo and their winning essay on the Telios Law website. (Given that this scholarship is for missionary kids, the photo- and essay-posting conditions may be negotiated if the security of the missionary kid or his or her family is implicated.)

By checking this box, I certify that typing my name below constitutes a legal signature.

To ensure that your application is complete, please make sure that you submit the following materials

- a. The completed application form
- b. An unofficial academic transcript
- c. An addendum or addenda (optional)
- d. An essay not to exceed 1,000 words authored by yourself and not significantly edited by anyone else responding to the following prompt:

The Greek word telios defines successful results in terms of being complete, whole, or mature. The English word “grit,” applied to psychology, means a firmness of mind or spirit or unyielding courage. How do these two concepts relate for you? How have they influenced your personal success? Please draw upon significant life experiences, academic learning, goals, your motivation for achieving those goals, and/or the stories of heroes you admire.

To apply, please e-mail your complete application to tell@telioslaw.com (preferred) or mail it to P.O. Box 3488 Monument, CO 80132. Applications must be sent (electronically or postmarked) no later than 11:59 PM according to the applicant's local time zone on January 15, 2019.
