Playbook
Summer 2026

“On behalf of the City of Revere, we invite residents and visitors alike to celebrate our “Field of Play” initiative this summer. This initiative combines public watch parties, cultural celebrations, business partnerships, and youth programming that will honor both the global game and the many cultures that call Revere home.”

- Mayor Patrick Keefe Jr.

Field of Play

Field of Play is a free, city-wide celebration bringing the World Cup to Revere's neighborhoods through watch parties, local festivals, and youth soccer activities. Centered in Revere's small business districts, it turns local restaurants and shops into hubs where residents can enjoy the food and culture of competing nations. It's a month-long event that reflects what makes Revere's community truly special. Follow the links and social media below for the latest on locations and events!
