

Getting to know the basics

On the Website:

The website, bangordailynews.com, is the heart of our digital offerings. It's the prime spot for:

- Accessing the fastest news updates
- Enjoying interactive digital features like polls and datasets
- Commenting on stories
- Interactive puzzles and games
- Utilizing all account services
- Searching for past articles

The homepage is designed for ease, allowing you to quickly spot recent stories by section or region. Want the latest news? A simple click on "News" in the top menu delivers the newest stories.

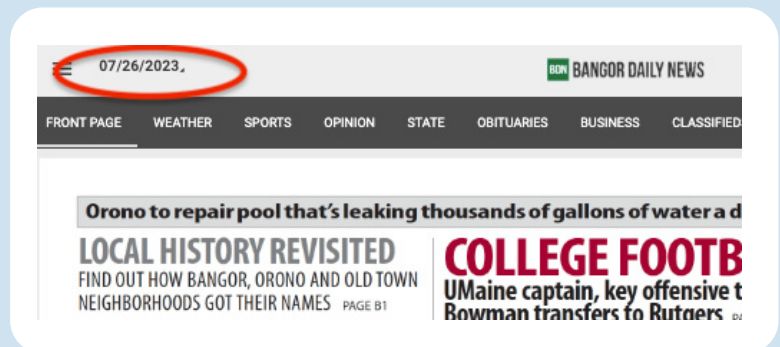

On the E-edition:

Available Monday through Saturday, the BDN e-edition mirrors our print layout and is conveniently delivered digitally to your email or accessible online. It's available with:

- A Print Subscription
- A Sustaining Digital Subscription
- An E-Edition Only Subscription

A highlight for print enthusiasts is the Puzzles section, available six days a week and tailored for easy printing.

Not Receiving Daily Emails?

If you should be getting the e-edition by email but aren't, please reach out to customerservice@bangordailynews.com so we can set things right.

First-time logging in?

Review Manage Your BDN Subscription for helpful tips to get started.

Looking for an older edition?

Inside the e-edition, click on the date at the top left corner. You'll see a menu with a week's worth of papers. From there, discover any edition since mid-2018 you're interested in reading.

If you're new, start by reviewing Manage Your BDN Subscription for a smooth first-time login.

After logging in and navigating to the e-edition:

- 1. Spot the date at the upper left corner of the page you're on.
- 2. Click on it, and a handy menu will appear, listing a week's worth of editions.
- 3. Browse through any editions released after mid-2018.

On the App:

Get the BDN Mobile App

Find it: Look in the App Store (for iPhones/iPads) or Google Play (for Android phones/tablets).

Why you'll like it: It's fast to use, doesn't have too many ads, and makes reading easy with big, clear text. You can also set it up to show you the news you're most interested in right when you open it.

How to get it: For more details and to download the app, just visit our website: BDN Mobile Apps.

As long as you're logged in with an active subscription, you'll be able to read all articles. If you click on a link to a BDN page that lives outside of the app, you may have to log in again to view the content on the BDN website in the in-app browser. Once you are logged in once, you should stay logged in.

To customize your app front page, click the pencil near the top of the page, drag and drop the sections you want to see, and save to see your new front page.

Navigate from story to story by returning to the app front page, or by swiping left or right from any article.
