

The Best Online Teaching Tools That Will Engage Students Guaranteed

© Elementary Assessments (elementaryassessments.com)

1. Kahoot

Kahoot is one of the best game-based online teaching tools where you can create quizzes, surveys, and discussions.

2. Learn Zillion

Learn Zillion offers free curriculum resources targeted to the Common Core standards.

3. Khan Academy

Khan Academy is a free, video-based online teaching tool that categorizes videos based on learning objective.

4. Jeopardy Labs

Like Kahoot, Jeopardy Labs is one of several digital game-based online teaching tools.

Customize the games according to the material that you want students to learn or review.

There are templates available for use or create your own.

5. Study Jams

One of Scholastic's little-known secrets is Study Jams, a collection of over 200 interactive math and science videos for elementary students.

Study Jams is free to use, and you don't have to register to access the videos/view the questions that accompany them.

6. Flocabulary

Cater to students' musical intelligence with Flocabulary.

Flocabulary uses educational rap and hip-hop songs/videos to teach students various skills and strategies within a wide range of subject areas.

7. BrainPop

BrainPop and all of its accompanying websites (BrainPop Jr., BrainPop ELL, and BrainPop Español) are engaging, high-quality videos for K-12 students.

Videos cover a wide range of topics and subjects.

8. Just Paste.It

Just Paste.It is an online sharing app.

It's a great tool to use for elementary students when they are learning how to do research.

9. Quizlet

Quizlet is a great interactive online teaching tool that lends itself to making vocabulary cards and reviewing information.

10. Google Documents (aka Google Docs)

Google Docs is fantastic for writing projects.

Upon creating a new document, students can immediately "share" it with you, allowing you "editing" privileges.

You then receive an email from each student that "shared" his/her document with you. That email has the link to their respective document.

Card contents go here

Moving forward, you'll have direct access to the student's document, with the ability to edit, write, comment, or revise.

11. Hoopla

Last but not least, Hoopla is a virtual library full of digital content~audio books, music, ebooks, movies, etc.

If you have a library card, you can access content via your local library's website.