Could Spiritual Direction Be for You?

As you have had conversations with Jesus, you may be wondering what your next steps could be. You hear Him yet still feel stuck or moving even into darker places. You and Jesus keep having the same discussions over and over again.

In our journey through life, it is not unusual to "hit a wall" or experience "a dark night of the soul" or even "stuck in the muck".

In the book, "Critical Journey", author Janet O.Hagberg writes "Our spiritual journey, our response to our faith in God, occurs in phases, each our own personal pilgrmimage. We each wrestle with our faith, yet there are ways to travel through the "dark nights of the soul."

What is important is to have a companion, a spiritual director to help you listen to God as you make your journey.

I would love to make that journey with you.

"I love our time together. There is something so sacred and special about Nancy holding the space for me. I can feel God's truths trickling deeper into my soul."
