Blacksad pdf descargar

The atmosphere is typical of the black genre of the late 50s in the United States. All characters are anthropomorphic animals, and this species usually reflects personality, for example almost all police officers are dogmen (German shepherds, sniffer dogs, Scottish terriers, etc.). Although both authors are Spanish, the main purpose of the series is the French market, and although it was the author's first work in the comic book world, it was a success (200,000 copies in France alone), so it has been translated into many languages. Thank you for The Last Book for getting us to know this comic.
