

Doug's Corner

Thank you to everyone that helped with Catalyst this weekend. We will have another one the first weekend of August.

There are a few spots open for anyone that would like to ride the van out to the Wright's this evening. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer, and I will be driving the van.

Pine Springs Info: For our first week campers, we will be leaving next Sunday. The trailer will be here at 8:00am and we want to leave by 8:30am. Please pray for our safe travels.

For those going to our 2nd week of camp, we will have a meeting this Wednesday following Bible classes. I will have information for our trip such as times and what you need to bring. If you have not registered for the 2nd week, prices go up after this Saturday. That week of camp is July 24-29. The camp code is bellave.

Jump!

A family was awakened by their smoke detector in the middle of the night to discover that their house was on fire. The father ran into the upstairs bedroom of his children and carried his 18-month-old baby in his arms while dragging his four-year-old by the hand.

They were halfway down the stairs when the little boy remembered that he had left his teddy bear in the bedroom, so he broke free from his father's hand and ran back to his bedroom to retrieve it. In the confusion the father didn't notice that his son wasn't with him until he got outside. By now the little boy was trapped by the flames and smoke in his second-story bedroom. Smoke swirled around him and he coughed and cried out from the upstairs window, "Daddy, Daddy! Help me!"

His father yelled from below, "Jump out of the window, Andy! I'll catch you!" In the darkness and smoke, the little boy yelled back, "But Daddy! I can't see you!" Daddy shouted back, "That's okay, son. I can see you! Jump!"

There is a true saying that goes, "I don't know what the future holds, but I do know who holds the future." Do you worry about the future? Are you afraid of what you can't see? Does it seem dark and smoky? None of us can see what lies ahead, but God tells us to trust him and "jump!"

Proverbs 3:5 & 6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths."
