

DOUG'S CORNER!

A huge thank you to everyone that participated in or helped with MIA this last week. We could not do this great event without all of you. This has always been one of my favorite events that we do.

Camps are just around the corner. If you haven't registered, please do so ASAP. We will have a quick meeting for parents and students that are going to both weeks of camp today following classes in the Fellowship Hall.

I hate that we had to postpone our Catalyst events, but I don't want to just do it, I want to do it well. We will let you know the new date as soon as we decide on it. I want to encourage everyone to be a part of this outreach effort. This is a great way for us to meet our neighborhood.

This Is The Way! - Doug

Carl's Dye-a-logue

This coming week I will be out of the office. Monica and I will be leaving tomorrow to go to Little Rock, AR for our daughter Rachel's wedding. Jamie will join us later in the week.

I would appreciate your prayers for safety in our travel to and from the wedding and for Austin and Rachel as they begin their life as husband and wife.

By the way, the wedding will be live streamed on Facebook. If you are friends with me on Facebook, I will post a link on my feed (and Monica will on her feed). If you are not my friend on Facebook, why not? Send me a request and we'll fix that! The wedding starts at 4:00 PM on Saturday, June 17.

It should be over in plenty of time for you to make the Father's Day celebration here at the church building. The only thing that could possibly keep me from attending this fantastic opportunity for fellowship is the wedding of my firstborn! I hope you are planning to attend.

As I have written and said many times, when we have opportunities to fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ, we should do all we can to take advantage of them.

By the way, this is not just my opinion . . . I believe it is Scriptural. Consider the example of the church in Jerusalem. In Acts 2:46, 47 we read of the first converts:

⁴⁶ And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

Whenever we have the opportunity to get together, whether for worship, Bible study, or fellowship (as a congregation or with just a family or two), we should look on it as an important opportunity to grow closer to each other and closer to God.

As we do so, with "glad and generous hearts," people will start to take notice. As people take notice, they will want to join us. As they join us, the Lord will add to our number!
