Doug's Corner

We had a great time last week going to eat at Waffle House and then bowling. Some of our students dressed up for the occasion, and it was wonderful. I love spending time with our youth and young adults.

Be praying for our college students as they start classes this week. We have several from Bell starting classes at AC, Jacob Riding is beginning his first year at Texas Tech, and Lainey Martin is starting her senior year at LCU. Let's be praying for them.

As you get back into your classes, make sure you give me a copy of your activity schedules. I want to go to your events and support you, but I need to know when they are.

For all our adults, I have new encouragement envelopes up on the bulletin board across from my office. Please consider writing our students notes of encouragement as they go through the school year. I have sheets with info on our students available.

This Is The Way! - Doug
